

Former Take-Two CEO Paul Eibeler joins Green Man Gaming as Board Advisor

London, UK 28 March 2017: Green Man Gaming, a global e-commerce technology company in the video games industry, today announced that gaming industry veteran, Paul Eibeler, has joined the company as Board Advisor. Paul brings a wealth of knowledge to Green Man Gaming through his experience of working at leading game publishers, distributors and platforms in the interactive games industry.

Whilst at Take-Two, a leading publisher of successful game franchises including Grand Theft Auto, NBA 2K, Civilization and Bioshock, Paul directed the company's growth from $200 million to $1.5 billion in his role as President and later as CEO. He is currently Chairman of Cokem International, a leading software distribution and marketing services company in the interactive games business.

"I'm excited to be joining the Green Man Gaming team during an exciting period of growth and expansion in the business. Paul Sulyok and the team have successfully built strong relations with leading game publishers worldwide offering consumers a wide catalogue of multi-platform games. I hope to share my experiences and industry knowledge with the team to further build on this success," said Paul Eibeler, Green Man Gaming Board Advisor.

"With his extensive experience in the gaming industry and success in managing high growth businesses, Paul is a great addition to the Green Man Gaming board. His continued passion for the industry and insight into game publishing and distribution will be invaluable to the team as we push forward our 2017 plans to grow the business worldwide," said Paul Sulyok, CEO and Founder of Green Man Gaming.
